

IN THE SOUTHERN UTE INDIAN TRIBAL COURT
ON THE SOUTHERN UTE RESERVATION

TüüÇai Wellness Court Adult
TERMS & CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION AGREEMENT

Terms and Conditions of Defendant's Supervision are as follows:

1. The Participant shall not violate any Tribal, Municipal, State, or Federal Laws while under the supervision of the Wellness Court.
2. The Participant shall abide by all orders of the Wellness Court / Southern Ute Tribal Court, whether written or oral.
3. The Participant shall appear at all Wellness Court proceedings pertaining to this matter as required; (The Participant understands that, under Wellness Court Procedure, reviews of this case shall be scheduled on a weekly basis unless otherwise indicated; these Court hearings may ultimately be lessened to bi-monthly and/ or monthly settings, at the discretion of the Wellness Court Judge, dependant upon phase and compliance.)
4. Although Wellness Court is based on a program of incentives and sanctions, whose goal is to prevent re-offending and to assist Participant in therapeutic rehabilitation, promoting a healthy lifestyle and community - the Participant understands that a set amount of jail-time has been imposed, and stayed, in this case and any non-compliance on the part of Participant may result in short terms of this jail-time being imposed immediately. There needs to be something in here regarding the right to have a hearing/due process the determination and discretion of the Wellness Court Judge.
5. The Participant understands that this case will be staffed, without Participant's presence, on a weekly basis by a Wellness Court Team which consists of the Wellness Court Judge, any and all Treatment Providers associated with this case, Wellness Court Staff, and any other party and/ or agency whom the Wellness Court and/ or Participant has determined to be necessary to the proceedings of this case, i.e. Division of Social Services, Multi-Systemic Team Members, School/ Educational Representatives, Case Managers, Counselors, Prosecutors, Defense Counsel, etc.
6. The Participant shall sign all necessary releases associated with Wellness Court, the Wellness Court Team, and/ or applicable Treatment Providers. Because Participant's success in Wellness Court depends on the collaborative effort of all agencies and providers associated with this case, and their ability to discuss related aspects of this case together in a forum in order to formulate the most applicable treatment plan/s, monitor compliance, and assist the Participant as a team – the Participant understands any failure or refusal to complete the necessary releases is therefore non-compliance to Wellness Court Policy Agreements and will result in an immediate Order to Show Cause issued and an appearance before a Judge, possible Wellness Court Revocation, and the possible imposition of all stayed jail-time.
7. Participant shall comply with all requirements of the assessment and evaluation process.
8. The Participant shall attend and participate in all classes, counseling sessions, therapy groups, or education as required and recommended by the Wellness Court Treatment Plan.
9. The Participant shall not consume or possess alcoholic beverages while under Wellness Court Supervision. The Defendant shall not be in or around establishments that sell or serve alcoholic beverages. Nor shall the participant consume, inhale, ingest in any manner, or possess illegal drugs and/ or narcotics, except for religious purposes, while under the supervision of the Wellness Court.
10. The Participant shall abide by all required Alcohol and/ or Drug testing as imposed by the Wellness Court. The Participant further understands that failure to abide by testing requirements and/ or refusal to submit to testing is a serious violation of the Wellness Court Order and this agreement, and will be addressed accordingly.
11. Wellness Court Compliance is monitored by Wellness Court Staff:
 - The Participant shall report to the Wellness Court Case Manager Department as required.
 - The Participant shall provide the Wellness Court Case Manager Department with written proof of attendance, participation in, or completion of, any classes, counseling/ therapy, education, useful public service, apologies, assignments, or other activities as required of the Participant as part of Wellness Court Sentencing, the Wellness Court Treatment Plan, and Terms and Conditions of this Supervision upon request.

- The Participant shall be required to provide breath and/ or urinalysis samples for testing, at any time, with or without advance notice, at the request of a Wellness Court Case Manager. Participant, unless other arrangements are made, is responsible for all costs and fees associated with such testing.
- The Participant, as part of Wellness Court monitoring or sanctioning, may be required to comply with Ankle Bracelet Monitoring and/ or In-Home Sobriety Breath-Alcohol Monitoring, as a component of supervision requirements. Participant, unless other arrangements are made, is responsible for all fees associated with such monitoring
- The Participant shall permit visits by Wellness Court Case Manager Department at home, or elsewhere, at the discretion of the Wellness Court Staff and the Participant shall admit Wellness Court Staff into his/ her home, or any other building or dwelling occupied by the Participant, however briefly, upon request.
- The Participant shall keep the Wellness Court Case Manager informed of his/ her correct mailing and physical address, employment location, and home and employment telephone numbers at all times throughout the term of supervision.
- The Participant shall notify the Wellness Court Case Manager within 72 hours of an arrest or upon the receipt of any citation, petition, or summons and complaint-charging Participant with a crime or major traffic offense.

12. Other:

13. It is understood that any serious violation of this order, dependant on circumstances and severity, may result in the immediate arrest of Participant, an Arrest Warrant being filed, or an Order to Show Cause being issued to Participant by an Officer. The Participant will be commanded to appear before a Judge and the Wellness Court as soon as possible to answer to the alleged violation/s.

These Conditions of Supervision have been read by or to Participant. The Participant, and the Participant's parent or guardian, if applicable, represent by signing below that he/ she/ they understand the Wellness Court Concept and it's expectations, these Terms and Conditions of Supervision, and the possible consequences for violation of Wellness Court policy and/ or these terms and conditions.
